IJ The Journal of yesterday morning copies from Philadelphia, in which the writer comnapolis, with reference to the slaves, with the assection of our cotemporary that the letter plains of the conduct of Gen. BUTLER at Anspeaks the "popular sense" of the country. In the letter the following remark appears-"THI MONRET TRUTH IS, WE ARE GETTING TO BE ABO-LITIONISTS, AND WANT TO BEE THIS NATIONAL LEFROST WIFED OUT." The sentiment here quoted is not the popular sentiment; it is not the sentiment of the volunteer army; and the man or press that asserts it as such proclaims a falsehood. It is the sent ment of the "irrepressible" Republicans; the party backs and imbecile poli-Alcians now in office; but not the sentiment of the people—and the time has come when such asser-tions and utterances should be suppressed. Their evil effects are two-fold, and terrible in their consequences. Southern rebels use them to advance their cause and strengthen their ranks. They are copied in all Southern papers, and the people called upon to unite as one man in defense of their lives and their firesides against the "Abolition invaders;" and in the ranks of our own volunteers, such declarations can have the following is a copy : no other effect than to dampen their ardor and make them lukewarm in the cause of their country. They have entered the ranks for the defence of the Constitution and the Union, and to aid in the enforcement of the laws; but they are almost a unit in uncompromising opposition to Abolitionism. They have no idea of the Voiunteer army buling used to emancipate more than four millions of negroes, and thus open the door, at the end of the war, for an inferior race to swarm into Ohio, to compete with them on their rotusn from the army to their various laborious parsuits, for employment in the same. They know that the effect of such a measure would be to degrade and permanently injure the white laboring men of Ohio, of whom these Volunteers oring men of Ohio, of whom these Volunteers

We repeat that this style of discussion in the Abolition press of Ohlo should be suppressed, and that without delay. It is of sufficient importance to the efficiency and success of the army, that it is suppressed as a military necessity; and if that he not done, the people should take hold of it, and silence these incendiary demagogues, who thus spread, far and wide, ideas so revolting, and which are so injurious in their consequences.
